

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF TRAFFICFINES.BE

I. PURPOSES OF THE WEBSITE

This website has the following purposes:

- Both domestic and foreign offenders can pay their traffic fines with a debit card (Maestro) or a credit card (Visa or MasterCard). This official payment platform limits the risk of remittance errors, simplifies processing and enables the government to take action automatically in the event of outstanding fines.
 - Offenders can check their traffic fine status.
 - Users can quickly find an answer to the most frequently asked questions in the dedicated FAQ section.
- The information on this website is general in nature. The information is not adapted to personal or specific circumstances, so it cannot be qualified as personal, professional or legal advice to the user.

The aim of FPS Justice in providing this website is to give users quick and easy access to these payment methods and the information they need on this matter.

II. CONTENTS AND AVAILABILITY OF THE WEBSITE

FPS Justice makes great efforts to ensure the information provided is complete, correct, accurate and up to date. In spite of these efforts, inaccurate information may occasionally be provided. If the information provided is inaccurate or certain information on the website is unavailable, FPS Justice will do its utmost to rectify the situation as quickly as possible.

FPS Justice makes great efforts to prevent interruptions due to technical faults as much as possible. However, we cannot guarantee that the availability of this website will not be interrupted or that the website will not be affected by other technical problems.

FPS Justice does not accept any responsibility for direct or indirect damage suffered as a consequence of consulting or using this website.

III. COPYRIGHT

Unless stated otherwise, the information on this website is free of copyright. The information may be used free of charge for personal ends subject to acknowledgement of the source. If prior permission is demanded for the use or reproduction of certain information, the restrictions on use will be explicitly stated. The use and reproduction of multimedia information (including but not limited to images, sounds and software applications) are always subject to prior approval.

FPS Justice holds all intellectual property rights on this website. Certain software applications and graphical elements that can be consulted through this website are supplied by third parties and may be copyright-protected, limiting their use and reproduction and subjecting these acts to the prior permission of the author.
